NOBLE TRIAL TO BE HELD MARCH 2

Date is Arranged When Widow of the Murdered Man, Her Attorneys,
and Alleged Murderer Appear.

IT WAS TO COME UP TODAY

Court Has Assurance That Decatur
Council Will Appropriate Money
Saturday to Pay Lawyer.

The trial of Ben Noble, of Decatur county, charged with murder in the first degree, who is held for the alleged killing of Albert Sprague, a wealthy farmer of the same county, and his employer, will be held March 2, or one week from next Thursday. That date was agreed upon in open court this morning when Noble was brought up and Ralph Sprague of Columbus, prosecutor of the Decatur-Bartholomew circuit, and James Cox of Columbus, who will assist Dennis O'Neil, the local prosecutor, in the prosecution, also appeared. It is thought that the Decatur county council will appropriate money to defend Noble, when they meet Saturday at Greensburg.

Today was set for the time of the Noble trial several weeks ago, as the time approached and nothing had been accomplished, it was predicted that the case would go over until the next term of court. But Judge Blair is determined to finish the case at this term of court and is working to that end. He has the assurance of the Decatur county authorities that they will do everything within their power to see that the appropriation is made to pay the expenses of hiring an attorney to defend Noble. The court is determined that Noble shall be well defended and that he shall be given a fair show for his life. In event he can not, the court declares that there will be no trial at all.

Mrs. Albert Sprague, the widow of the murdered man, was here today with the two Columbus attorneys, who will assist in the prosecution of Noble, as was her brother of Bartholomew county. She and the members of her family have employed the assistant counsel and will do everything in their power to convict Noble of the offense.

Mrs. Sprague appeared in the court room with her attorneys. Shortly after the murder, Mrs. Sprague lost the use of her voice and for several days was not even able to speak a word. She has improved now and is able to talk in a whisper. Harry Malson of Manilla is a brother of Mrs. Sprague.

There has been much speculation as to whom Judge Blair will appoint to defend Noble. The matter lies wholly within his jurisdiction even though it has been said that if the Decatur county council appropriated the money, the commissioners of that county would have the right to appoint the lawyer. The county attorney there, Tom Davidson, has told Judge Blair that he had no connection with the case whatever. It has been whispered that John E. Osborne of Greensburg and Ben L. Smith of this city may be appointed.

BOY RETURNS HOME.

Avery Hughes, age 14 years, left the orphans' home at Knightstown some time Saturday and went to Greenfield in company with another boy from the home and was returned Sunday by the officers. The boys remained there Saturday night and one of them escaped Sunday morning before the officers found them and it is not known where he finally landed.

There are five hundred hotels and apartment houses in Los Angeles.

SALE DATE IS CHANGED

Big Combination Auction Postponed
Until Wednesday, March 1.

Due to the fact that the local option election will be held on the last of this month, which falls on Tuesday, one week from today, and also that four other sales will be held in the near vicinity of Rushville on that day, the combination sale, which was set for that date, has been postponed until the next day, March first. Already a great amount of stuff has been entered and the promoters are expecting the most successful event of the series. It will be held at the Davis Brothers coliseum as usual.

SHELBY COUNTY IS NOT SATISFIED YET

Senator Yarling Asks That Superior Court Judge Divide His Time
in Shelby Circuit.

WHILE BLAIR IS BUSY HERE

A bill which would confer additional duties upon the judge of the Marion Superior Court, Room 1, by requiring that official to go to Shelbyville and hold court at stated intervals for twenty weeks during the year, was introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Senator Yarling of Shelbyville. The bill is designed to relieve the court dockets in Shelby county, while Judge Blair of the Shelby-Rush Court is hearing cases in this county. Judge Charles J. Orbison, who was elected to the bench in Room 1 last fall, has entered no protest against the proposed changes. The bill would require Judge Orbison to hold four terms of five weeks each in Shelby county, the first to begin on the first Monday in April, the second on the first Monday in September, the next on the first Monday in November and the last on the first Monday in February. Shelbyville attorneys in the Senate chamber yesterday said that the business of the Shelby county court is such that an additional judge is necessary.

INJUNCTION SUIT WAS DISMISSED

Case of Mrs. Orlando Macey Against Jacob Wissing is Settled During Argument of Counsel.

HE KEPT THE GATE LOCKED

The case of Mrs. Orlando Macey against Jacob Wissing, both of whom live near Manilla, for an injunction, finally came up for an airing in the circuit court yesterday afternoon when the counsel for the parties argued the case. It finally resulted in the suit being dismissed by agreement before the argument was completed.

Mr. Wissing erected a gate on the partition line fence several months ago and it is averred that he keeps it locked except when he wants to use it himself. Mrs. Macey alleges that Wissing passes over her land and damages it by cutting it up. Mr. Wissing also contemplated digging a ditch that would pass through the Macey farm and a temporary restraining injunction was granted by Judge Blair Saturday until the merits of the case could be given an airing in court.

MARTIN DRAWS 10 TO 20 YEARS

Greenfield Man is Convicted of Robbing New Palestine Bank on Night of December 29.

DEERY WILL BE SENTENCED

Pleaded Guilty and Subsequent Confession Implicated Cordia Martin
—Williams May be Released.

After being out about twenty minutes yesterday afternoon the jury in criminal court, which tried Cordia Martin on the charge of robbing the bank of New Palestine, Ind., on December 29, returned a verdict of guilty, says an Indianapolis dispatch. The penalty is ten to twenty years in the State prison.

Martin was also held on charges of conspiracy and grand larceny, but was only tried on the one charge.

He is alleged to be the ringleader of the gang that stole more than $6,000 from the bank and brought it into Marion county, where a distribution was made.

Vance Deery was implicated in the robbery and will receive a sentence on his plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny. Dan Williams, whose name also was connected with the affair, will be released within a few days, it is stated, because the State has not evidence enough to warrant a trial.

The argument was scheduled for Monday morning and Deputy Prosecutor Fred McCallister told the jury of the State's case. The defense did not submit any argument and the case went to jury in the afternoon.

Charles A. McConnell, a safe expert of this city, was the only witness for the defense. He testified that no safe with a modern lock and of the type in the New Palestine bank could be opened by a stranger without the combination. He said there was an infinitely small chance that a stranger could get the combination numbers by twirling the lock. There were three five-tumbler combinations on the New Palestine safe.

Martin has refused to talk concerning the robbery. Police declare it is a mystery how he opened the New Palestine bank safe and the other safes which he is alleged to have opened within the last few months, according to the testimony of Deery. Deery laid bare the facts in the various other robberies and in all of the cases where the safes were opened he said Martin did the work without tools. He is said to have operated only with phosphorus rubbed on the finger tips, but to have been guided by the sound of dropping tumblers.

E. F. Quigley, prosecutor of Hancock county, and Ora Myers, mayor of Greenfield, stated that the grand jury of that county would be called at once and an investigation made. It is probable that Williams will be summoned to answer several indictments that will be returned against him, after investigation of the various robberies in which his name was mentioned by Deery.

The funeral services of Henry C. Darling, who died Sunday afternoon at his home in Spiceland, were held this afternoon at two o'clock at the Friends church. The services were in charge of the K. of P. lodge. Mr. Darling had been ill for about six weeks. He was 62 years of age. His widow and seven children survive. The children are: Mrs. Charles Anderson and Charles Darling of New Castle; Mrs. Warren Jeffries and Mrs. Walter Hodson of Spiceland; Alva Darling of Knightstown; Mrs. Walter Risk of Centerville, and John Darling of Frankfort.

BRANDS BILL AS 'GERRYMANDER'

Senator E. E. Moore of Rush-Fayette-Hancock District Says Democratic Draft is Unfair.

CITES FAYETTE AND FRANKLIN

Declares it Would be "Hopelessly Democratic" While Other Joinings
Would be More Uniform.

E. E. Moore of Connersville, senator from Hancock, Rush and Fayette counties, has branded the Democratic legislative reapportionment bill a "gerrymander," and declares that with a little additional study the bill could have been drafted much more equitably, says the Indianapolis Star. Senator Moore has made a study of the measure, introduced by Senator Grube, and he says he has figures to show that in many instances the senatorial and representative districts, as created by the Senate Committee on Legislative Apportionment, were drafted unfairly.

The unit of representation for the Lower House is 7,452, and in many instances there is an excess of population which could be remedied to a great extent, Mr. Moore says, if the Democratic majority in the Senate were not anxious to create Democratic districts.

In the Fayette-Franklin district, which, under the proposed new apportionment, is given one joint representative, the unit of population is overlapped more than it ought to be, Senator Moore avers. The number of votes which the member from the Fayette-Franklin district would represent is 8,349.

With the unit fixed at 7,452, there is an excess of 1,897 in the district, which, it is pointed out by Senator Moore, could be reduced considerably if the committee which drew the measure were willing to risk giving the Republicans a representative from that district.

The Fayette-Franklin district would be "hopelessly Democratic," whereas, if Fayette county were joined with Wayne county, the excess of population for representation would be reduced materially, but the district likely would be Republican, Senator Moore says. If the district were made Fayette-Wayne, which could just as easily have been done, since the two counties are contiguous, the excess voters for representation in the Lower House would be 1,052 instead of 1,897, Senator Moore declares.

If in drawing the bill, Franklin and Union counties were joined in the representative district, the excess of population would be 1,083, but in that event, too, there would be danger of the Republicans electing the members of the Lower House.

In the district made up of Decatur and Jennings counties the total population, which a member of the Lower House would represent under the proposed act, based on the number of votes in the two counties is 9,398. With the unit fixed at 7,452, this makes an excess of 1,946.

The Connersville hydraulic case which was sent here on a change of venue and which never came to trial, was wiped off the circuit court docket today. The argument for a temporary restraining order was stopped here by the compromise.

THE WEATHER

MRS. CHARLES KEHL DEAD

Funeral Services Will be Held Tomorrow in Connersville.

The funeral services of Mrs. Charles Kehl, who died Sunday morning at her home east of Orange, will be held at the Christian church in Connersville tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock. Mrs. Kehl was fifty-eight years old. She had suffered for several weeks from dropsy and a complication of diseases and her death was not unexpected. Besides her husband she is survived by two adopted children.

WOULD AMEND DRAINAGE LAW

Senator E. E. Moore of Connersville Introduces Measure at Request of Rush County Constituents.

SAYS PRESENT LAW IS UNFAIR

It is very likely that there will be no more petitions filed to drain Flat-rock if a bill, which was introduced in the Senate in Indianapolis yesterday by E. E. Moore of Connersville, senator from this, Fayette and Hancock counties, becomes a law. The measure requires that twenty per cent of property owners affected by drainage improvement to petition the board of county commissioners for such improvement before it shall become effective, instead of one property owner as under the present law.

Senator Moore says he has, at the request of some of his constituents in Rush county, who have been studying the drainage question, and do not think it is fair that one or two property owners may file such a petition and either get it through or put on other property owners the burden of putting up a fight to defeat the petition. His bill will provide only the amendment of the section which concerns the filing of the petition, he says, and will not affect another section of the same law, which provides that the petition may be defeated by a remonstrance of two-thirds of the resident property owners, or may be denied on a showing that the drain is not of public utility.

WOMAN'S BURNS PROVED FATAL

Mrs. Sherman Hervey Died at the Deaconess Hospital in Indianapolis Last Night.

LIVED SOUTHWEST OF MILROY

Mrs. Sherman Hervey, who was badly burned at her home southeast of Milroy a week ago last Sunday while preparing breakfast, died last night at the Deaconess hospital in Indianapolis where she was removed after the accident. Hopes had been expressed for her recovery but she had gradually grown worse and passed away at seven o'clock. She was twenty years old. The remains were taken to the home today, but as yet the funeral arrangements have not been completed. She is survived by her husband.

COURT "DARK."

Judge Blair left this afternoon for his home in Shelbyville and will not return until Thursday morning. As a result the court will be "dark" tomorrow.

PRAISES TEVIS ON HIS ADDRESS

Washington, Ind., Democrat Speaks
in Highly Complimentary Terms of Local Minister.

GREAT ADDRESS BY GREAT MAN

Audience Convulsed With Laughter
at His Wit and Humor—Style
All His Own.

Under the headline, "A Great Address by a Great Man," the Washington, Ind., Democrat says of Dr. V. W. Tevis of this city:

The second number of the lecture course given by Dr. Smiley's Sunday school class, was given last night at the First M. E. church by Dr. Virgil W. Tevis of Rushville, Indiana, to a large and appreciative audience on "The Successful Man."

The speaker seemed to be at his best and the address was one of the richest treats the Washington people have ever enjoyed. It was scholarly, profound and full of beauty from start to finish. One constant flow of oratory, eloquence, wit and humor for more than an hour.

He carried the people with him, upon the mountain, then to the plains, then beyond the seas. He would carry them away to the heavens, then suddenly drop them to earth.

At times they were convulsed with laughter with his wit and humor. At other times they were profoundly moved with his masterly way of putting things. The speaker at other times would swing to the dramatic, until the people realized beyond a doubt they were in the presence of an artist.

Dr. Tevis has a style that belongs exclusively to himself. The young men of the Sunday school class were greatly pleased, and the universal verdict of the large audience was that the number was a great success.

FEW LISTEN TO MEDIUMS

Spiritualists Have Varied Success at Meeting in Court House.

From fifty to seventy-five people gathered in the assembly room of the court house last night to listen to a lecture on Spiritualism by Mrs. H. B. Rymer of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is at the head of the Society of Spiritual Progress in that city. Mrs. Rymer was accompanied by Miss Lulu Curry, a young medium, formerly of Osgood, who gave a few demonstrations with varied success at the close of the lecture. Miss Curry will remain here for some time.

FIRE DID SMALL DAMAGE

Blaze in Home of Robert Lacy in Milroy.

Milroy was the scene of another exciting fire this morning when the residence of Robert Lacy was found in flames. By heroic efforts the fire department extinguished the fire before any great damage was done. It is thought that the fire started from an overheated flue. The gas supply had been short and Mr. Lacy had built a wood fire and this caused the flue to become overheated. The property is owned by Oliver Harcourt.

MR. HOBSON HAS VISION OF WAR

Terrible Conflict to Begin Within the Year.

JAPAN IS ALREADY PREPARED

The Reason That Nation Is Now Bankrupt, Gentleman From Alabama Says, Is Because It Has Already Financed the War With America, Which He Says Will Continue For Many Hard, Cruel Years.

Washington, Feb. 21.—In the near future Japan and the United States will go to war. The conflict will begin in less than ten months. The war will last five years, perhaps ten. The Panama canal will be destroyed, and in the end this nation will carry the war to Japan and conquer that kingdom.

These are a few of the predictions made by Representative R. P. Hobson of Alabama, who used to be an officer in the navy, on the floor of the house. "We will be struck," he cried, "and when we are—gentlemen may differ with me as to the time, but I firmly believe it can be counted in months on the fingers of my two hands—we will find ourselves practically powerless. The nations of the world will call on us to give up the war and not continue to disturb the peace of the world, just as we did with Russia in her war with Japan. Our own financiers will demand that we end an apparently hopeless struggle.

"But we will not give up. We will fight on, angered and humiliated, until it becomes a mere question of resources. Ever since we went into Hawaii and the Philippines, declining to let Japan in there, ever since their citizens came to this country and received the treatment from our people that the difference of race made inevitable, Japan has been preparing for war with us. And the Japanese in this country are helping her."

War Already Financed.

Representative Gaines of West Virginia, asked Hobson if Japan would find it possible to finance a war with the United States.

"Japan," Mr. Hobson said, "is the only nation today that is clever enough to finance a war before it begins. She is bankrupt today because she has already financed the war she will wage against us."

"We must not try to strike the enemy in the early stages of the war," he said. "We will never have the use of the Panama canal. There will be a long struggle for the control of the waterway. The Philippines, Hawaii, Guam, all our island possessions in the Pacific, Alaska, San Francisco and the Puget sound region will be taken by the enemy. We will spend at least $60,000,000 for transport service to the canal zone, and millions to increase our navy."

"Having at last driven the enemy from the canal, we will send our fleet into the Pacific and try to cut the enemy from his base. There will be a great battle. If we lose we will build a great new navy and the war will be prolonged many years. If we win we will send our army to our own Pacific coast and drive out the enemy."

Mr. Hobson then depicted the stand Japan will make at Hawaii, which, he added, will be taken after a long siege and then, after five or six years of terrific international combat, the United States will retake Guam and the Philippines, make a dash to Korea, chase the Japanese to their own island, and then subjugate that.

Quite a few members of the house heard the speech. They did not appear to be alarmed, except over the elasticity of Hobson's imagination.

THAT CONSTITUTION

The Governor's Plan to Be Subject of Another Caucus.

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—Discussion and criticism of the proposed changes in the state constitution, as agreed on in caucus of the house and senate Democrats, after presentation by the governor, are to lead to a discussion of proposed changes in a caucus to be held this evening by the house and senate Democrats. In a statement the governor said the measure was not to be regarded as being so fixed as not to permit of any changes, and that he hoped any changes which would come as a result of honest and straightforward criticism might be made, if for the good of the general scheme.

Bomb Thrown at Home of Doctor Who Wouldn't Pay Tribute.

New York, Feb. 21.—Hurled by a man from a closed carriage which was being driven through East 106th street, a bomb wrecked the stoop of the home of Dr. Biagio Bartoli at 110 East 106th street, caused a panic among the near neighbors, and smashed all the glass in the neighborhood.

Dr. Bartoli is one of the best known Italian doctors in the city. Recently he received some threatening letters of the usual black hand variety, but paid no attention to them. The bomb explosion apparently was in retaliation for his failure to pay tribute to the blackmailers.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

FARM NAMES.

(New Castle Courier.)

Name your farm and post it over the entrance gate. A name is an honest expression of pride in your place; it shows interest in your home; it is a distinction. It means more than the possession of so many acres of brown earth, a dwelling and a barn. Sentiment gathers around it and family ties are strengthened.

But for practical, as well as sentimental reasons it is wise to bestow a name upon the farm. It is an inspiration to the owner and his family to make the farm worthy of the name by higher cultivation of the land, better stock and a more attractive appearance of the premises.

The selection of an appropriate name is an easy matter. The landscape, a clump of trees, a spring or creek, location and historical associations will provide suggestions. And always remember that with you rests the problem of turning back the drift cityward. An attractive home is a great help.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—It cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medical, forest plants. G. Stanley Hall denounces college coaches for demoralizing athletics. So do all the students of the college whose teams lose.

You can't keep a good man down but there are plenty of people standing around ready to soak him in the back when he is trying to get up.

The bees carry out the drones, but the live ones in cities, towns and villages are debarred by the statutes from carrying out the dead ones.

Eggs have dropped six cents in Chicago in a fortnight, but your family won't be satisfied unless you hustle around and get some toast for them to drop on to.

The magazines say they would be driven out of existence if higher postage rates went on. Would it not be awful if we never found out if Algernon Saphead won the love of Genevieve Softleigh?

The church of England has authorized the Archbishop of Canterbury to revise the Decalogue. This will make the governor of Indiana turn green with envy, unless the bill introduced by Senator Sexon, empowering him to revise the thirty-nine articles of faith and to shorten the sermon on the mount be promptly passed.

It was Thomas R. Marshall, now governor of Indiana, it will be remembered, says the Connersville News, who had so much to say against President Roosevelt and Governor Hanly because they suggested and urged certain legislation. Now the only difference to be noted is that the men criticized were urging what the public demanded while Marshall is clamoring for and dictating measures that nobody has demanded or thought of unless, possibly some private interests who do not come out in the open.

The legislature of the State of Maine has passed, by the requisite two-thirds majority, a resolution re-submitting the prohibition section of the State constitution to the people and Maine will have the privilege of declaring for or against that policy. For many years there has been a strong desire among the people of that State to have the question submitted to a vote, but the Republican legislatures and governors opposed this move. At least there was a revolt, and the consequence is that a Democratic governor and Legislature were chosen in 1910.

As Maine was the original "dry" State, the country will be interested in the attitude which it will take in the coming plebiscite. Back in 1846 Maine enacted its first anti-liquor statute. This was strengthened and made more sweeping in 1851, and from that time, till now, except in 1856 and 1857, intoxicants there have been under the ban. In recognition of the Pine Tree State's pioneer work in that field, prohibition, when proposed or adopted in other States half a century ago, used to be called the Maine law. Nine States have prohibition at present, but in none of them can it be said to be a success. If, as is probable, Maine declares against it in the coming election there is a strong likelihood that the protests against it which are being heard in Georgia, Tennessee, Oklahoma and other "dry" States will begin to command serious attention from their lawmakers.

We snatched a part of that from the New Castle Courier. D'yo know what it means?

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION

It has been stated that a "dry town" is not as good a town to do business in as a "wet town". That is not true of Rushville. The business men almost without exception did a better business the last two years than under the wet regime. Sixteen saloons in Rushville in 1908 are reported to have taken in approximately $158,000. This money, we believe has since that time gone into the tills of reputable business places. Ask your clothier, grocer, shoe man, hardware or dry goods merchant if his trade was better or worse. Ask him WHAT HIS BOOKS SHOW.

We have asked a few merchants how much their

Grocer No. 1.....	$ 750.00
Grocer No. 2.....	1850.00
Grocer No. 3.....	2000.00

over "wet" years. A few answers were:

Grocer No. 4.....	$3000.00
Clothier No. 1.....	3000.00
Clothier No. 2.....	1000.00

Clothier No. 3.....	Much Better
Candy Kitchen No. 1.....	$3000.00
Candy Kitchen No. 2.....	1200.00

Others all reported business "much better." A number of kinds of new business have been started. There are a great many less than "sixteen" empty rooms. The "dead head" list has been largely eliminated. The bank deposits of the City (of three National Banks and one Trust Company) on Nov. 27th, 1908 were $1,102,063, on Nov. 10, 1910 were $1,570,758, an increase of $468,694, or nearly half a million dollars in two dry years. We challenge comparison of "wet" and "dry" conditions from a business standpoint.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace will have a Biograph tonight, the subject of which is "The Poor Sick Man." It is the story of a man who gets up against a tough proposition and then finds an easy way out of his troubles. The picture has enough real comedy mixed in to make it a thriller. Earl Robertson will sing "Bye, Bye Sweetheart."

The Vaudeville will present the usual double program tonight with two reels of pictures. The first is an Italia film with two subjects, "The Big Drum" which is a comedy and "The Dog Sweeper." The second film is an Ambrosia, also with two subjects, "A Bo and the Teddy Bear," and "Favor Admission to a Play." Both are high class comedies. A new illustrated song will be sung.

Large crowds were in attendance at the Star Grand last night to see the Cowboy and Indian picture show and everyone was well pleased with the entertainment. Clarence Eward made a big hit with his singing, especially with his special song entitled "When Some One Really Cares" and Miss Margaret Anderson's playing was highly spoken of. The same pictures will be shown again tonight. Mr. Eward will sing the illustrated song entitled "Dixie For Me" and also render a special solo. Miss Frankie Clark, pianist.

Rose Stahl, than whom there is no more popular actress that visits Indianapolis, will open an engagement of one night only, Thursday February 23, at English's opera house. Instead of presenting "The Chorus Lady," the comedy in which she has appeared on several occasions, Miss Stahl will submit for the approval of local theatergoers, her latest character comedy from the pen of Charles Klein entitled "Maggie Pepper." Admirers of Patricia O'Brien will be quick to recognize their favorite even though she has acquired a bit more polish. She is still the past mistress of slang, self-sacrificing and quick to extend the helping hand, a genuinely appealing personality. "Maggie Pepper" is described as a character comedy in three acts, with its scenes laid in New York City. Henry B. Harris has mounted the piece very beautifully and has surrounded his star with a strong cast which includes Frederick Truesdell, Grant Stewart, Lee Kohlmar, J. Harry Benrimo, Herbert Ayling, Beverly Sitgreaves, Eleanor Lawson, Grace Carlyle and Beatrice Prentice.

LECTURE TONIGHT.

The lecture of Prof. Moulton tonight will touch upon each of the subjects of his entire series of lectures embracing the higher mental powers in business, education, professional life, domestic life and cure of diseases. This will be the only single lecture that the public can attend. Only course tickets will be sold after tonight. People in all walks of life will find much help.

$2.50 has been the price of admission to each person for each lecture in classes. 10 cents will be charged tonight merely for expenses.

The Flag Paramount

By O. Henry

Copyright, by Ainslee Magazine Co.

The Caribs prepared a meal, to which the three passengers of El Nacional set themselves with famished delight. About sunset, as was its custom, the breeze veered and swept back from the mountains, cool and steady, bringing a taste of the stagnant lagoons and mango swamps that guttered the lowlands. The mainsail of the sloop was hoisted and swelled to it, and at that moment they heard shouts and a waxing clamor from the bosky profundities of the wood.

"The butchers, my dear admiral," said the large man, smiling, "too late for the slaughter."

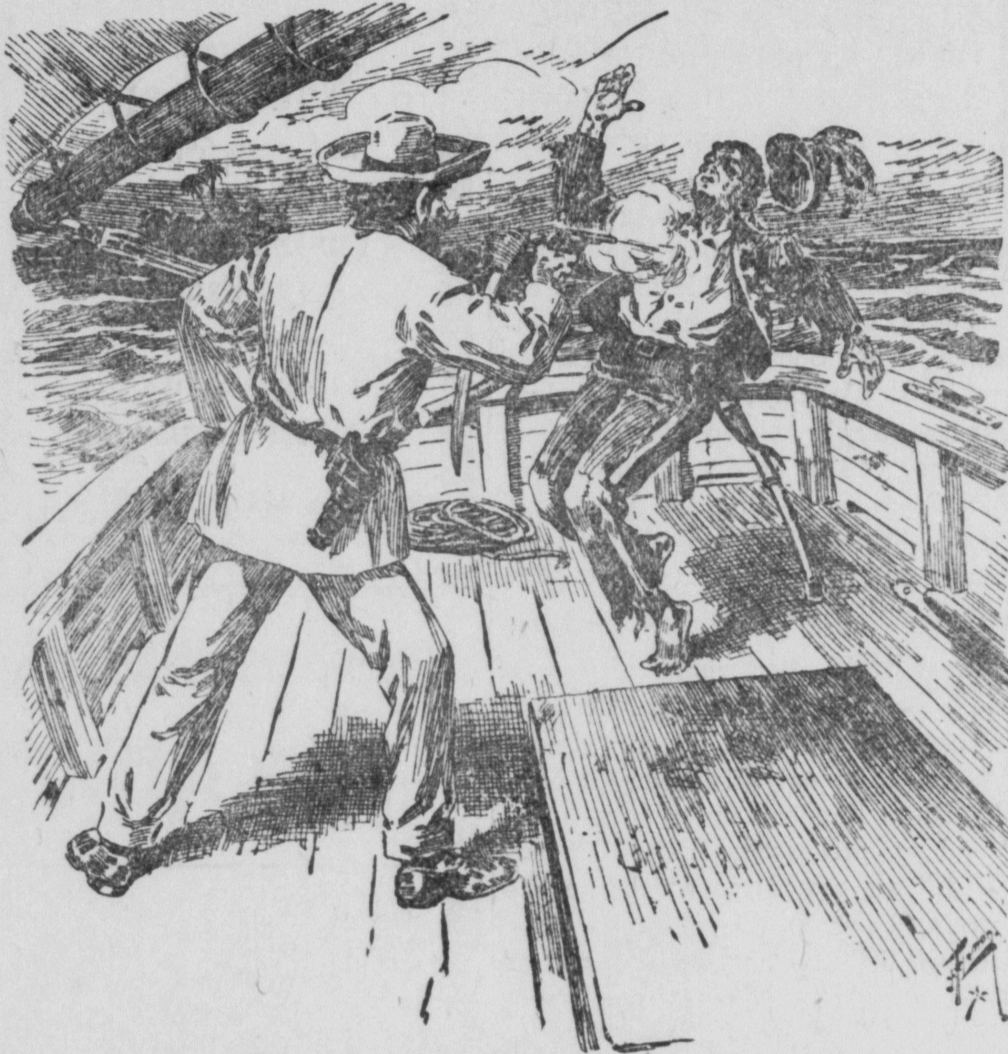

Further than his orders to his crew, the admiral was saying nothing. The topsail and jib were spread, and the sloop glided out of the estuary. The large man and his companions had bestowed themselves with what comfort they could about the bare deck. Belike, the thing big in their minds had been their departure of that critical shore; and now that the hazard was so far reduced their thoughts were loosed to the consideration of further deliverance. But when they saw the sloop turn and fly up the coast again they relaxed, satisfied with the course the admiral had taken.

The large man sat at ease, his spirited blue eye engaged in the contemplation of the navy's commander. He was trying to estimate this somber and fantastic lad, whose impenetrable stolidity puzzled him. Himself a fugitive, his life sought and chafing under the smart of defeat and failure, it was characteristic of him to transfer instantly his interest to the study of a thing new to him. It was like him, too, to have conceived and risked all upon this last message to a poor, crazed fanatic cruising about with his grotesque uniform and his farcical title. But his companions had been at their wits' end; escape had seemed incredible; and now he was pleased at the success of the plan they had called crack-brained and precarious.

The brief, tropic twilight seemed to slide swiftly into the pearly splendor of a moonlit night. And now the lights of Solitas appeared, distributed against the darkening shore to their right. The admiral stood, silent, at the tiller; the Caribs, like black panthers held the sheets, leaping noiselessly at his short commands. The three passengers were watching intently the sea before them, and when at length they came in sight of a steamer lying a mile out from the town, with her lights radiating deep into the water, they held a sudden voluble and close-headed converse. The sloop was speeding as if to strike midway between ship and shore.

The large man suddenly separated from his companions and approached the scarecrow at the helm.

"My dear admiral," he said, "the government has been exceedingly remiss. I feel all the shame for it that only its ignorance of your devoted service has prevented it from sustaining. An inexcusable oversight has been made. A vessel, a uniform and a crew worthy of your fidelity shall be furnished you. But just now, dear admiral, there is business of moment afoot. The steamer lying there is the Salvador. I and my friends desire to be conveyed to her, where we are sent on the government's business. Do us the favor to shape your course accordingly."

Without replying, the admiral gave a sharp command, and put the tiller hard to port. El Nacional swerved, and headed, straight as an arrow's course, for the shore.

"Do me the favor," said the large

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

man, a trifle restive, "to acknowledge at least that you catch the sound of my words." It was possible that the fellow might be lacking in senses as well as intellect.

The admiral emitted a croaking, harsh laugh, and spoke. "They will stand you," he said, "with your face to the wall and shoot you dead. That is the way they kill traitors. I knew you when you stepped into my boat. I have seen your picture in a book. You are Sabas Placido, traitor to your country. With your face to a wall. So, you will die. I am the admiral, and I will take you to them. With your face to a wall. Yes."

Don Sabas half turned and waved his hand, with a ringing laugh, toward his fellow fugitives. "To you, caballeros, I have related the history of that banquet when we issued that oh, so ridiculous commission. Of a truth, our jest has been turned against us. Behold the Frankenstein's monster we have created!"

Don Sabas glanced toward the shore. The lights of Solitas were drawing nearer. He could see the beach, the warehouse of the Bodega Nacional, the long, low cuartel occupied by the soldiers, and, behind that, gleaming in the moonlight, a stretch of high dome wall. He had seen men stood with their faces to that wall and shot dead.

Again he addressed the extravagant figure at the helm.

"It is true," he said, "that I am fleeing the country. But, receive the assurance that I care very little for that. Courts and camps everywhere are open to Sabas Placido. Vaya! what is this molehill of a republic—this pig's head of a country—to a man like me? I am a paisano of everywhere. In Roma, Londres, Vienna, Nuevo York, Madrid, you will hear them say: 'Welcome back, Don Sabas.' Come! tonto—baboon of a boy—admiral—whatever you call yourself—turn your boat! Put us on board the Salvador, and here is your pay—five hundred pesos in money of the Estados Unidos—more than your lying government will pay you in 20 years."

Don Sabas pressed a plump purse against the boy's hand. The admiral gave no heed to the words or the movement. Braced against the helm, he was holding the sloop deep on her shoreward course. His dull face was lit almost to intelligence by some internal conceit, that seemed to afford him joy, and found utterance in another parrotlike cackle.

"That is why they do it," he said, "so you will not see the guns. They fire—boom!—and you fall dead. With your face to the wall. Yes."

The admiral called a sudden order to his crew. The lithe, silent Caribs made fast the sheets they held and slipped down the hatchway into the hold of the sloop. When the last one had disappeared, Don Sabas, like a big, brown leopard, leaped, closed and fastened the hatch, and stood, smiling.

"No rifles, if you please, dear admiral. It was a whimsey of mine once to compile a dictionary of the Carib lengua. So I understood your order. Perhaps you will now—"

He cut short his words, for he heard a sharp "swish" of iron scraping along tin. The admiral had drawn his cutlass, and was darting upon him. The blade descended, and it was only by a show of surprising agility that the large man escaped, with only a bruised shoulder, the glancing weapon. He was drawing his pistol as he sprang, and, the next instant he shot the admiral down. (To be continued.)

PRIZE DEBATER GOES AFTER THE COLONEL

Sheppard of Texas Touches Off Some Fireworks.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Colonel Roosevelt was characterized as a human seidlitz powder and the Republican party as a mass of incoherent wreckage, by Representative Morris Sheppard of Texas in the house, in the course of the general debate on the naval appropriation bill. Mr. Sheppard made an attack on the breastworks of Republicanism, and praised undiluted Democracy to the skies. He was very sharp in his criticism of Roosevelt, who, he said, "did not hesitate to leap into the thick of party brawls to occupy a new but shadowy eminence as party feudist and party boss, a strutting contradiction, a swaggering pretense, a true type of modern Republicanism that he presents with two faces, insurgency and standpatism, on a single head."

Burdett Cleared of Blame After Many Years.

STORY READS LIKE FICTION

Thirty Years Ago, When Brother of Humorist Was a Registry Clerk in the Peoria Postoffice, $3,500 Disappeared and He Was Blamed—The Long Missing Package Has Just Turned Up in an Old Mailbag.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 21.—Rev. Charles Edwin Burdett, brother of "Bob" Burdett, the humorist, has been vindicated after thirty years of any blame in connection with the disappearance of $3,500 from a registered letter package sent out by the Peoria postoffice when he was its registry clerk.

The $3,500 disappeared after it was put in twelve registered letters by John Comstock. The evidence was all against Burdett. Comstock demanded that General Magee, the postmaster, who died last year, immediately discharge Burdett. Comstock carried the matter to Washington and an inspector from Chicago recommended that Burdett be discharged, but the postmaster refused. Burdett studied for the ministry and now has a pastorate at Springfield, Mass.

Into a repair shop at San Francisco a few days ago an old battered sack was sent to be patched. The first man to inspect the sack decided it needed a new bottom and with a knife he ripped the leather bottom. Then he saw above it a big manila envelope caught by the corners, which it proved had served as a false bottom. He opened the envelope and found it to contain the twelve Comstock letters and the missing $3,500, which had been wandering about the country for thirty years.

ELIMINATION IS THE WATCHWORD

Legislative Program to Be Stripped to the Bones.

MINOR BILLS TO BE DROPPED

The Word Has Gone Out That Only Important Bills Are to Receive Consideration in the Little Time Now Remaining and That All Others Must Die the Death—Committees Have Sharpened Axes For Executions.

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—The volume of acts which will be published following the adjournment of the general assembly will be a pocket edition if the present plan of the house and senate majorities carries throughout the remainder of the session.

With less than two weeks left to complete the various tasks of the session, the leaders have set themselves up in solid array with the battle axes drawn and well sharpened. Only after the most careful scrutiny and comparison with the legislative needs of the state, and with the Democratic platform, will any bill be permitted to pass down the line. In other words, the wielders of the battle axes are
"from Missouri," and will "have to be shown" the need of the enactment of any bill, outside the platform list, before it is permitted to reach the governor's desk.

Will Rush House Bills.

Senate bills that have reached the house are to be permitted to gather dust on the desk of the speaker while house business is disposed of, according to an agreement reached between Speaker Veneman and some of the members of the house. While there was a disposition on the part of some of the house members to hold back senate measures in retaliation for the senate's not showing any disposition to consider house bills, Speaker Veneman did not consent to such procedure, but did agree to push house bills in advance of the others in order to make time. A number of the house members whose bills have been passed on that side have grown impatient of the senate delay and for several days have been attempting to coerce the senate into action on their measures. While a number of the leaders would not declare openly that both the house and the senate have been marking time merely for the purpose of having time pass, a number of them acknowledged that that is what the actions of the session thus far have amounted to.

"The biggest thing before this general assembly," said one of the house leaders, "is to prevent the passage of bad bills. There is no clamor on the part of the people for extensive added legislation. In the more than one thousand bills introduced in both the house and senate, there are not twenty-five beyond a few legalizing acts, which there is any necessity of making into laws." In the light of what this member said, the fact that neither the senate nor the house has shown any inclination to rush in considering bills coming from one branch to the other takes on added significance. Members on both sides said that the consideration of the platform measures, the administration measures and such bills
as the steering committees believed should be passed was sufficient to occupy the entire time remaining.

The Essential Bills.

Thus far not a platform measure
has reached the governor's desk, except the Proctor option measure,
which is to be superseded by a measure now under way. There are to be considered during the remainder of the session in one house or the other or in both, the liquor regulation bill,
the bill embodying the proposed changes in the constitution, the Proctor bill to repeal the county option law, the Grube referendum bill, the employers' liability bill, the registration bill, the corrupt practices bill, the child labor bill, the amendment of the public accounting law, the weekly wage bill, which is subject to reconsideration in the senate; the various bills concerning sanitary conditions in workshops, the bill to give the governor the power to appoint the state mine inspector, the penal institution labor bills, the bill to consolidate the department of inspection and the state labor commission, the various railroad commission bills, the bill to restrict the operations in this state of foreign corporations (senate bill No. 105), the congressional apportionment bill, the legislative apportionment bill, the specific and the general appropriation bills, a bill to relieve conditions in township trustees' offices in the townships containing large cities or parts of large cities, and a number of other important measures which the steering committees have in charge.

Experienced legislators say that if these measures are handled as they should be handled when they come up for action the house and senate will have all they can do to take care of them even with some night sessions, let alone giving any great amount of time to hundreds of other measures which have been introduced, many of which have been advanced to engross-ment.

Jack London is said to be under arrest at Calexico, Mexico, for taking part in the rebellion.

GOMPERS MAKES PLEA FOR CHILD LABOR BILL

Labor Leader Addresses Indiana Legislature.

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—Before the members of the senate and the house assembled yesterday afternoon Samuel Gompers made a plea for the Keegan child labor bill. It was apparently the mission of his visit here to save the bill. The house having passed it, his remarks were driven home to the members of the senate. He declared that it is a piece of humanitarian legislation, and that the need of it was just as great in Indiana as in any other states which have taken legislative steps of this kind. He put the stamp of his personal approval upon the Keegan bill.

Gompers also mentioned other specific labor measures and spoke generally of progressive law making. He expressed himself as being in favor of the people having an opportunity to change their constitution if they so desired. He did not speak specifically concerning the new constitutional plan of Governor Marshall, and said he knew nothing whatever of the political significance of the revision movement,
but he indicated he is generally in favor of progressive constitutional changes.

"Constitutions were not built for all time," said Gompers. "There must be changes in them with the growth of commerce and industry, the expansion of cities, the broadening needs of the judiciary."

"The people of Indiana seem to have been manacled in the past by the impossibility of obtaining a majority vote on any constitutional changes. A constitution either must fit the wishes of the people or it will be violated, and hence when it is outgrown it should be modified to meet the demands of the generations which are living."

The loss, including $100 in the safe, is

DRUNKEN BRAWL ENDS IN A BLOODY TRAGEDY

Sullivan County Blind Tiger the Scene of Murder.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 21.—As a result of a drunken brawl George Hutchinson, aged twenty-three, unmarried, is dead at his home at Jackson Hill No.
2, and Daniel Neal, aged fifty-seven,
and George Schultz, aged fifty-two, are confined in the Sullivan county jail on suspicion of having committed the crime.

Hutchinson was in the hall of Daniel Neal's hotel, an alleged blind tiger, when the shooting occurred, and when Sheriff Wible and Deputy Ed Kelley arrived, his body was lying in the middle of the floor in a pool of blood, while just above the left ear was a hole as large as a dollar, where the volley from a shotgun had taken effect.

The quarrel is said to have resulted from a game of craps. Neal and Schultz, it is alleged, tried to put Hutchinson and his brother Fred out of the door, and several blows were exchanged. Then someone shot Hutchinson to death with a shotgun.
The men next knocked Fred Hutchinson down with a club over the body of his dead brother. Neal recently served sixty days in jail for running a blind tiger and a similar charge hangs over his wife.

The land of opportunity, rich soil and unexcelled climate;
rainfall equal to that of Indiana. The last chance to buy good corn land cheap. Remember that land suitable for successful growing of corn is limited. You will not find it in the Northwest or in the mountain country west; and the south land will never be a corn country in a commercial way. Our lands are also suitable for all the small grains, an excellent fruit country and the Stockman's Paradise, for no where in these United States will you find conditions so favorable for the growing of good stock. We make a specialty of farm lands and have a large number of good farms located close to good towns and markets, where you have plenty of good northern farmers for neighbors, free schools, tele-
